No. 7:16-cv-00108

JOINT MOTION TO LIFT STAY,
VACATE STATUS
CONFERENCE, AND SET
BRIEFING SCHEDULE

Plaintiffs and Defendants jointly ask the Court to lift the stay of this litigation, vacate the status conference scheduled for December 19, and set an agreed briefing schedule on the parties' motions for summary judgment and on proposed intervenors' motion to intervene. Proposed intervenors take no position on whether the stay should be vacated, but agree to the proposed briefing schedule if the Court chooses to vacate the stay.

I. Procedural background

Plaintiffs are eight states, a religious hospital network, and an association of over 19,000 Christian healthcare professionals. They filed this lawsuit on August 23, 2016, challenging a Rule issued by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) pursuant to the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA). Although the ACA forbids discrimination on the basis of "sex," 42 U.S.C. § 18116(a), HHS issued a Rule interpreting this provision to forbid discrimination on the basis of "gender identity" and "termination of pregnancy." 45 C.F.R. § 92.4. Plaintiffs allege that the Rule would require Plaintiffs to perform and provide insurance coverage for gender transitions and abortions contrary to their religious beliefs and medical judgment. ECF No. 21 (Am. Compl.).

Proposed Intervenorors are organizations whose members include transgender people and women seeking reproductive healthcare. They filed a motion to intervene on September 16, 2016, requesting both permissive intervention and intervention as of right. ECF No. 7.

On December 31, 2016, the day before the Rule was to take effect, this Court concluded that the Rule likely violates the Administrative Procedure Act (APA) and Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA) and issued a preliminary injunction. ECF

No. 62. On January 24, 2017, this Court denied Proposed Intervenor's request for intervention as of right and deferred ruling on the request for permissive intervention. ECF No. 69.

On March 14, 2017, noting the absence of any factual disputes, Plaintiffs moved for summary judgment. ECF No. 82. In response, HHS moved for a "stay" of the litigation and a "voluntary remand" to "reconsider" "the reasonableness, necessity, and efficacy of the two aspects of the regulation that are challenged in this case." ECF No. 92.

Over Plaintiffs' opposition, ECF No. 94, this Court granted HHS's request for a stay and voluntary remand, ECF No. 105. Although the Court acknowledged that HHS had "not confessed error, identified new evidence, or cited any intervening events to support [its] remand request," it concluded that a stay was warranted because "some or all of Plaintiffs' claims" "may" be rendered moot by HHS's "impending review of the Rule." ECF 7-9.

It has now been 17 months since the Court issued its stay, and 23 months since the Court issued its preliminary injunction. HHS has filed eight nearly identical status reports, all stating that HHS is "reevaluating the reasonableness, necessity, and efficacy of the Rule," and all requesting "an opportunity to continue reconsidering the Rule." ECF Nos. 109, 110, 111, 113, 114, 115, 119, 124.

On December 11, 2018, the Plaintiffs asked the Court to schedule a status conference to consider whether to lift the stay of this litigation and proceed to final judgment. On December 13, the Court set a status conference for December 19. On December 14 and 17, the parties conferred with each other and with proposed intervenors and were able to reach an agreed briefing schedule as set forth below.

II. Argument

The parties respectfully ask the Court to vacate the status conference and set an agreed briefing schedule on the parties' motions for summary judgment and on proposed intervenors' motion to intervene.

Plaintiffs have been living under the uncertainty of the challenged Rule for almost two years. Although the Court's preliminary injunction remains in place, multiple lawsuits have been filed against entities like the Plaintiffs in other jurisdictions, seeking a ruling that the term "sex" in the ACA (or the Equal Protection Clause itself) requires them to perform controversial and sometimes harmful transgender medical procedures in violation of their religious beliefs and medical judgment. See, e.g., Tovar v. Essentia Health, No. CV 16-100 (DWF/LIB), 2018 WL 4516949, at *3 (D. Minn. Sept. 20, 2018); Minton v. Dignity Health, No. 17-558259 (Calif. Super. Ct. Apr. 19, 2017) (appeal filed); Enstad v. PeaceHealth, No. 2:17-cv-01496 (W.D. Wash filed Oct. 5, 2017); Conforti v. St. Joseph's Healthcare System, No. 2:17-cv-00050 (D.N.J. filed Jan. 5, 2017). Although HHS is currently reevaluating the reasonableness, necessity, and efficacy of the Rule, the time required to complete the notice-and-comment phase and to publish a final rule is not currently known, ECF No. 119 at 2 (Status Report #7), and may take a substantial length of time. Proposed intervenors also desire a final ruling on their motion to intervene. Accordingly, the parties agree that the Court should lift the stay of this litigation, resolve the motion to intervene, and allow the parties to file motions for summary judgment. They propose the following schedule:

Proposed schedule

Filing	Deadline
Plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment	2/4/18
Proposed intervenors' renewed motion to intervene	2/4/18
Plaintiffs' and Defendants' responses to the renewed motion to intervene	2/25/18
Proposed intervenors' reply in support of the renewed motion to intervene.	3/11/18
Defendants' and proposed intervenors' cross-motions for summary judgment and opposition to Plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment	4/5/18
Plaintiffs' opposition to Defendants' and proposed intervenors' cross-motions for summary judgment and reply in support of Plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment	5/3/18
Defendants' and proposed intervenors' reply in support of their cross-motions for summary judgment	5/24/18

This proposed schedule contemplates that proposed intervenors may file a renewed motion to intervene, addressing in light of any new developments both intervention as of right and permissive intervention. It also contemplates that proposed intervenors may submit summary judgment briefs together with Defendants. If the Court denies intervention, those briefs would be considered as amicus briefs; if it grants intervention, those briefs would be considered as the briefs of intervenors.

III. Conclusion

The parties respectfully request that the Court vacate the status conference scheduled for December 19, and set an agreed briefing schedule for further proceedings consistent with this joint motion.

Respectfully submitted this 17th day of December, 2018.
